

When People are Hungry

Food insecurity is a growing issue, not only across the country but here in Idaho as well. The Idaho Food Bank released statistics in April that indicate that 14.7% of Idahoans are experiencing food insecurity.

What is food insecurity?

Food insecurity is not having enough affordable, nutritious food. Sadly, those with lower incomes are more apt to struggle with this challenge.

Pocatello has resources available if you suffer from food insecurity. Listed below are multiple locations and the services they provide:

Food Pantry

Contracting Opportunities for the City of Pocatello

As part of its RENEWAL Program, the City of Pocatello's Neighborhood & Community Services Division offers bidding opportunities to area contractors. Rehab projects include plumbing, electrical, and HVAC work, as well as roof replacement or repair and sidewalk installation. Interested contractors can request to be placed on bid mailing lists by calling 234-6255, or can view current bids at the Housing Authority office, at City Hall or on the City's website at www.pocatello.us. Preference is given to Section 3 residents and business concerns. For more information, please call 234-6185

Remember, maintenance can always be reached at 220-9621.
